PIKSI PHILOSOPHY IN AN INCLUSIVE KEY 2020
SPONSORED BY THE ANDREW W. MELLON FOUNDATION AND THE AMERICAN PHILOSOPHICAL ASSOCIATION

A SUMMER INSTITUTE FOR UNDERGRADUATES
PIKSI summer institutes are designed to encourage undergraduates from groups traditionally underrepresented in philosophy to consider future study of philosophy. Undergraduates and recent graduates are urged to apply; groups traditionally underrepresented in (anglophone) philosophy include women, LGBTQ and gender non-conforming people, people from economically disadvantaged communities, people with disabilities, and people of color or people racialized as nonwhite, including Chicano/a/xs and Latino/a/xs, Indigenous people, Pacific Islanders, people of African descent, and people of Asian descent. Transportation and lodging are provided. Stipends are awarded to all.
